DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-54 are pending in this application. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

Lack of Unity Requirement

Claims 54 are drawn to more than one inventive concept (as defined by PCT Rule 13), and accordingly, a restriction is required according to the provision of PCT Rule 13.2.

PCT Rule 13.2 states that the international application shall related to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept (requirement of unity of invention).

PCT Rule 13.2 states that unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features.

Annex B, Part 1(b), provides that "special technical features" mean those technical features which, as a whole, define a contribution over the prior art.

Annex B, Part 1 (e), provides combinations of different categories of claims and states:

"The method for determining unity of invention under Rule 13 shall be construed as permitting, in particular, the inclusion of any one of the following combinations of claims of different categories in the same international application:

- (i) in addition to an independent claim for a given product, an independent claim for a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an independent claim for a use of the said product, or
- (ii) in addition to an independent claim for a given process, an independent claim for an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process, or
- (iii) in addition to an independent claim for a given product, an independent claim for a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an independent claim for an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process, . . ."

- Art Unit: 1626

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions, which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in response to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 1-15, 34, and 41-43, are drawn to compounds and compositions of Formula I, as defined in claim 1, variously classified in class 558, 564 and several subclasses.
- II. Claims 16-20, are drawn to a process of preparing compounds of Formula I, variously classified in class 558, 564 and several subclasses.
- III. Claims 21 and 22, are drawn to a second process of preparing compounds of Formula I, variously classified in class 558, 564 and several subclasses.
- IV. Claims 24-26, are drawn to a third process of preparing compounds of Formula I, variously classified in class 558, 564 and several subclasses.
- V. Claim 27-33, 35-40, 44-50 and 52-54 are drawn to methods of use of compounds of formula I, variously classified in class 514, D28 and several subclasses.
- VI. Claim 25 drawn to a cosmetic composition of compounds of Formula I, variously classified in class D28 and several subclasses.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: they do not share the same essential structural element(s) that define the “special technical feature” necessary to specify a contribution over the prior art.

- Art Unit: 1626

This application contains claims directed to more than one method of preparation. These methods of preparation are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. Inventions of Groups I and II-IV are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process as indicated in Groups III and IV.

The inventions of Group I-IV are distinct, each from the other, because they differ in structure and/or element so as to be patentably distinct and a prior art reference anticipating but one of the groups would not render obvious the other groups under 35 U.S.C. 103. Groups I-IV are unrelated because divergent class or subclasses of compounds exist and each group is capable of supporting its own patent.

Applicant is required to elect a single process of making compounds of Formula I.

The method of use claim will be rejoined with the elected invention and examined commensurate the scope therewith.

A telephone call was made to Eric S. Hyman on 02/04/03 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143). Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

• Art Unit: 1626
